GITTINS BILL GOES OVER

FINAL ACTION DEFERRED UNTIL SEPTEMBER ON RACING RELIEF MEASURE.

Friends of Proposed Legislation To Continue Their Efforts In Its Behalf During Midsummer Recess of the Legislature.

Albany, N. Y., July 22.—The Legislature last night took a recess until September and the Gittins bill, designed to relieve directors of race tracks from criminal liability for violations of the gambling laws of which they have no knowledge, goes over until that time. A thorough canvass of the Assembly yesterday disclosed the probability that the bill would lack four votes of the number required to send it to the governor for approval, and rather than risk final defeat its friends decided to let the issue remain in statu quo until the Legislature reconvenes in September. So there will be no racing at Saratoga this season and perhaps none at any of the other New York tracks, since the legislative relief, if it does materialize, will come so late in the year that it may not be considered worth while to reopen the tracks this season. In the interim between now and the reconvening of the Legislature in September both friends and foes of the proposed legislation undoubtedly will bring all the influence to bear on doubtful members of the Assembly that they can.

There are 150 members of the Assembly and it requires 76 affirmative votes to pass a bill in the House. There were 34 members absent on the roll call on the Gittins bill. As soon as the vote of 53 ayes to 62 nays was announced Thursday Majority Leader Alfred E. Smith moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was lost, for the purpose of calling it up again in a final effort to pass it. This motion was adopted without comment.

The Republicans who voted for the bill were Assemblymen Jones of Jefferson, Nolan and Waters of Albany, Pappert of Monroe, The Democrats who opposed the bill were Assemblymen Beach, Bridenbecker, Chanler, Collin, Day, Drummond, Evans, Geaton, Gurnett, Hoyt, Huber, Larue, McDaniels, Miller, Saunders, Trombly and Wheeler.

Those absent or present and not voting were: Democrats—Assemblymen Blauvelt, Bush, Dawson, Donovan, Egan, Fitzpatrick, Fry, Gerhardt, Gillen, Holman, Monczynski, J. J. O'Neill, Patrie, Schifferdecker, Shiede, Washburn, Zorn, Speaker Frisbie.

Republicans—Assemblymen Ahern, Brerton, Connell, Goodman, Hinman, Lincoln, J. S. Parker, C. W. Phillips, Pierce, Sullivan, Talmage, F. A. Waters, White, Winters.

Independence League—O'Connor. The debate on the bill was a practically a repetition of the discussion on the Gittins bill in the Senate. Assemblyman Oliver arraigned the foes of the bill so severely that former Lieut.-Gov. Chanler, who was in the chair at the time, insisted that Mr. Oliver would have to eliminate personalities.

Assemblymen A. J. Levy and Shors discussed the present law and the Gittins amendment from a legal standpoint. They insisted the statute which made officials of racing associations or of any other body guilty of crime when they had no knowledge of it was radically unfair. Mr. Shors insisted he knew the supporters of all the anti-race track gambling legislation of the past and knew they were inspired by commendable ends. However, that in this instance they had gone too far and that he was compelled by a sense of fairness to support the Gittins bill.

Assemblyman Oliver, in supporting the bill, said that the present law had been secured by bribery upon the part of county fair associations and Grange societies throughout the state. They were bought by the state by appropriating $250,000 for which the people are taxed and today the county fairs are infested with shell games, card sharps and skin games of various kinds, that he had no sympathy for gamblers, but believed this bill should receive the united support of every member who had the courage of his own convictions on the subject.

Among other members who spoke in advocacy of the bill were Majority Leader A. E. Smith, Louis A. Cuvillier, Joseph A. Warren, Peter P. McGilligot and Edward Well.

Leader of the Minority E. A. Merritt made a speech in opposition, as also did Murray of New York City and Frank L. Young of Westchester.

Minority Leader Merritt declared that horse racing in this state had been conducted without gain, bling. People up in St. Lawrence county, he said, did not care much for horse racing, anyway, and they were opposed to any interference with the laws which might encourage gambling. Assemblyman J. S. Phillips of Allegany expressed similar sentiments, which brought the suggestion from Mr. Oliver that the fight for the proposed legislation declared the counties never got any further away from home than the county fairs and knew nothing about big cities and horse racing.

Majority Leader Smith insisted that millions of dollars worth of property tied up in the race tracks was only one reason why a great majority of the people wanted racing to continue. Lawyers of all political parties, he insisted, agreed that the Gittins bill was a sane proposition which ought to be enacted into law.

All day yesterday the friends of the bill worked hard with the idea of calling it from the table in the Assembly and voting a second time on it, but after the last canvass had been made by Senator Gittins, Assemblyman Alfred E. Smith and others who led the fight for the proposed legislation declared that it would be hopeless to bring the matter up again. "The votes aren't here to pass it," said Assemblyman Smith, leader of the majority, "and why should we vote again?" It takes 76 to pass it. Last night we lacked 23. There are quite a few, I understand, who would vote with us now, but not enough. The great trouble is that many of the Assemblymen here, while knowing that the Gittins bill is good legislation, and being entirely in sympathy with what it seeks to do, are afraid of a little alleged sentiment in their districts. They are afraid of their shadows. They have not the courage to do what they know to be right."

Senator Gittins fully expected the measure would go through the Assembly. In fact, he, like some of his friends, thought the real danger lay in the Senate. "I can't understand," said he, "why it should not pass. It was not designed to aid the bookmakers, but merely to give race track owners and directors a fair deal. As the law now stands they cannot be expected to keep the tracks open because there is bound to be betting, no matter how vigilant and conscientious the police authorities may be, and if there is betting the directors may be sent to prison, even if they were in Honolulu or Shanghai when it was going on."

VANDERBILT SCORES A DOUBLE.

W. K. Vanderbilt scored twice at Le Tremblay in France yesterday, his Hildergarde II. winning the Prix Prince Charlie and Adam the Prix Blinkbonny.

HORSES IN TRAINING IN THE EAST.

Considerable Activity at Long Island Tracks Despite Suspension of Racing.

New York, July 22.—There are now thirty-seven horses in active training at Gravesend. Superintendent James Dunphy has the course in the best of condition, and the gates of the track could be opened for a race meeting any day. John Hynes, a veteran trainer who has sent many a notable winner to the post, has ten horses in his care, and they are in racing condition. In the Hynes lot are Ethel Le Brune, Imitator, Orison, Sir Evelyn, Delphin, Ugo, Rye and a couple of two-year-olds. Charles Kohler's horses, in charge of William Spence, are forward and ready to race at a week's notice. Master Robert is going soundly and has shaped up magnificently. Chickasaw is expected to show improved form. He is going well in his trials. Herodia has developed into a strikingly handsome filly, and the indications are that she will carry her great flight of speed over a considerable distance. A two-year-old bay filly by Peter Pan—Sundown has the appearance of a good one, and a chestnut filly by Locobatchee—Blue Blood, is of a good type. Both have worked well and are thoroughly broken to the barrier.

The racing establishment of Mr. Earle, over which Con Leighton presides, is made up of three promising two-year-olds, chestnut colts by Hermis—Victoria M. has the stamp of quality. He resembles his famous sire in many respects. A chestnut colt called Coming Con, by Gone Con, and a filly named Huda's Queen, by Blues, are the other two in Leighton's charge.

Thomas Monahan's horses are being trained by Jerry Welsh. Textile has grown into an unusually fine-looking colt. He has speed, but is ambitious, and it is safe to assume he will carry weight well over a considerable distance of ground. Paton is also a colt of splendid proportions and he possesses a fine flight of speed. The colt Rockfield is going along well in his work.

William Keating, who is handling S. F. Hyman's horses, has them in good fix. Perry Johnson, Prince McGregor and Louise Welles are in the string. J. L. McGinnis has Cu Bon and others in good condition. Footlights, owned by George J. Kraus, is also about ready to race.

John Mayberry has been working the Joseph Marone horses along smartly during the past fortnight. Everett, the crack of the Quincy Stable, now handled by John Mayberry, is getting steady gallops. Matt Allen has only two in his care at present. They are Shackleton and Mongolian. Shackleton last season showed high speed in some of his races, but displayed a tendency to quit. He has shown in trials this spring that he can go on.

Jack Dowdell has brought The Gardener back to racing condition. When Mr. Dowdell, a local trainer, brought the horse back from G. J. Kraus, the horse had a bad skin disease. He has been entirely cured and is bigger and better than at any time in his career.

Ardril, one that has run many a good race for Frank Regan, was rested until a few weeks ago, but he has gone about his exercises recently with a vigor that shows he is just about ready to go. When he was beating some good horses, Ardril had a hard campaign last year and when he went into retirement his legs were under suspicion, but they have firmed down nicely, and he is going as soundly as a yearling.

J. H. Valentine has the gift horse Bion at Gravesend. This four-year-old, when in the stable of the present law, was a stiff-legged galloping at Gravesend one morning. The injury was such that it was thought best to destroy the horse, and it was about to be done when Valentine happened along and said that he thought he could effect a cure. Mr. Clay told him he could have the horse. Bion is without a blemish now and his gallops would suggest that he will be a good one when he is sent to the races.

When John E. Madden shipped his string to Saratoga a short time ago he cut down the horse population of Sheephead Bay considerably, but there are still many horses at the Coney Island course that are galloping every morning, and some of them are close to a Brock. Frank Clark keeps the course in excellent condition, and the trainers who remain loyal to its magnificent stretches have every opportunity to fit their charges.

Frank Frisbie has a fair string in training, Pharaoh probably being the star. Mr. Frisbie has not yet asked him to show much speed, but he is eager, big and strong, and in such robust health that tuning him up for racing will be comparatively sure of accomplishment. Rosimiro is going along well. Last season he showed a disposition to be mean, but his temper has sweetened and he is not far from racing condition. Of the two-year-olds a Singleton filly, out of Romond, is one of the best. There is a shapely filly by Prince of Melbourne—Lady Dido, that has a good way of going. A noted Heel filly and two maiden three-year-olds complete the Frisbie racing establishment.

The James R. Keene string is in charge of Tom Green, who for years was stable foreman for James Rowe when he so successfully kept Mr. Keene at the top of the winning owners for years. Mr. Rowe is now a chestnut named the same name, Harry Payne Whitney. In the Keene string are several good ones. Sweep, the swift son of Ben Brush and Pink Domino, has been going along exceedingly well and could be brought to the races with a few fast moves. Lord Rochester, a prominent maiden three-year-old, by Disguise—Hampton Belle, went amiss early last season but is back in training. Never Land, a brown two-year-old by Peter Pan—Anomaly, is a splendid individual. He has been highly tried and was worked with the lot that were finally chosen for a campaign in England. He has steadily improved and many are of the opinion that he would better represent the white and blue spots abroad than many that were shipped. Hook, a bay colt by Peter Pan—Mintake, is another that has created a sensation in his trials and he has all the earmarks of a topnotcher. He has a particularly smooth way of going and is level-headed in all of his exercises. Promised Land, a brown gelding by Delhi—Fair Vision, is well made. Of the fillies Equitrienne, chestnut daughter of Hippodrome and Nora Greina, is exceptionally good looking and has done all that has been asked of her in a way that convinces Green that she will be able to take care of herself in the best company. Last fall this filly worked a quarter in 22½ and the move was such a thoroughly impressive one that she narrowly escaped banishment to England. Playmate, a black filly by Peter Pan—Biturien, dam of the great Maskette, is another in the string. She was not broken until late last fall, but has grown and developed into a wonderfully good-looking as well as a fast filly. Cloak, a bay filly by Disguise—Cyria, is another beauty of the string.

Sam Hooker is training Uncas Chief and Castalia for the estate of T. L. Watt and both of them are well advanced. Wells Clark has a stable of jumpers composed of Charlie Hargrave, Endymion, Sir Gaze, Hammond Lass, Left Over and Telegraph. They are all ready to race now. Belmont Park, the course of the Westchester Racing Association, of which William A. Gorman is superintendent, has received the same careful attention that it did when racing was in its glory. The mile and a half track, on which many famous horses raced in record time, is as fast today as when Roseben started seven-furlongs with his remarkable performance of seven furlongs in 1:22. The several owners quartered at the big course in Nassau County

STAKES FOR TORONTO FALL MEETING.

Ontario Jockey Club Announces Nine Events for Autumn Decision at Woodbine.

Secretary W. P. Fraser of the Ontario Jockey Club announces a stake program for the fall meeting at Woodbine, September 22-30, that is thoroughly in keeping with the splendid reputation of Canada's foremost racing organization. Ten stakes will be decided during the seven days that the meeting will run. One will be a produce stake that closed in 1908, but the others are now open for entries and will be closed Friday, August 4. All but three of the events will be open to American horses as well as Canadian and are bound to attract the pick of the thoroughbreds of all ages in training in this country. It goes without saying that the Woodbine meeting will be well worth participating in.

The stakes, entries for which will close August 4, with their conditions, are as follows: Toronto Autumn Cup (handicap), $2,500 added; for three-year-olds and upward; by subscription of $30 each, or $10 if declared by twelve o'clock noon, on Friday, September 22, to the winner, with $2,500 added, of which $500 to second horse and $250 to third; one mile and a quarter; to be run Saturday, September 23.

Dominion Handicap, $1,500 added; for all ages, foals in Canada; by subscription of $20 each, or $10 if declared by twelve o'clock noon, Friday, September 22, to the winner, with $1,500 added, of which $300 to second horse and $150 to third; winners after announcement to carry five pounds extra; one mile; to be run Saturday, September 23.

Seagram Cup (heavyweight handicap), A challenge cup, value $1,000, with $1,000 added; for three-year-olds and upward; the bona fide property of owners resident in Canada, and the horse or horses to be owned by the nominator prior to August 1; a challenge cup presented by James E. Seagram, to which is added a sweepstakes of $20 each, or $5 if declared by Saturday, September 23, at noon, to the winner, and $1,000 by the Ontario Jockey Club, of which $200 to second horse and $100 to third; a heavyweight handicap; the top weight to be 140 pounds, but no horse to carry less than 106 pounds; three horses the property of different owners to start, or the race void for that year; the cup to be held for one year by the owner of the winner, and to become the absolute property of any owner winning two years in succession; weights announced Thursday, September 21; winners after publication of the same to carry, once, five pounds; twice, seven pounds; one and one-sixteenth miles; to be run Monday, September 25.

Michaelmas Handicap, $1,500 added; for two-year-olds; by subscription of $20 each, or $10 if declared by twelve o'clock noon, Friday, September 22, to the winner, with $1,500 added, of which $300 to second horse and $150 to third; weights announced Saturday, September 23, at five p. m.; three-quarters of a mile; to be run Tuesday, September 26.

Durham Cup, $1,500 added; a challenge cup presented by the Earl of Durham; for three-year-olds and upward; foals in Canada; by subscription of $20 each, or $10 if declared by Thursday, September 28 at five p. m., to the winner, with $2,500 added, of which $500 to second horse and $250 to third; four to four-and-a-half miles; a piece of plate will be presented by the club to the winner; two miles and a quarter; to be run Saturday, September 30.

Woodbine Autumn Steeplechase, $1,500 added; for four-year-olds and upward; by subscription of $20 each, or $10 if declared by Thursday, September 28 at five p. m., to the winner, with $2,500 added, of which $500 to second horse and $250 to third; four to four-and-a-half miles; a piece of plate will be presented by the club to the winner; two miles and a quarter; to be run Saturday, September 30.

Hendrie Steeplechase, a challenge cup (handicap), $2,000 added; for four-year-olds and upward; a challenge cup presented in memory of the late William Hendrie, by his son, Lieut.-Col. William Hendrie, to which is added the sum of $2,000 by the Ontario Jockey Club and a sweepstakes of $20 each, or $10 if declared by Thursday, September 28 at five p. m., to the winner, with $500 to second horse and $250 to third; weights announced Wednesday, September 27 at five p. m.; three miles; to be run Saturday, September 30.

A sweepstakes will be presented to the rider of the winner by the Ontario Jockey Club. In addition to the foregoing list of stakes, the Stanley Produce Stakes, $1,500 added, for foals of 1908 (closed March, 1908), will be run on Wednesday, September 27.

Overnight handicaps of $800 and $700 will be run during the meeting, with purses of $600 and $500. The lowest value of any purse will be $300. Entrance money in all cases will go to the winner. Nine steeplechases will be run during the meeting, including a steeplechase for three-year-olds and another for three-year-olds and maiden four and five-year-olds.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ben Pryor, whose father was one of the first American trainers to meet with success in England, has purchased a three-year-old filly named Eleanor, by Golden Garter—My Mullah.

Dave Leynt, agent for Samuel C. Hildreth's stable, made a flying trip to Sheephead Bay from Canada the past week. It is likely that several of the Hildreth horses will be shipped to the Bay for a rest.

Frank Suydam, well known as a bookmaker's sheet writer and formerly in the employ of George Rose, John Sayers and John Duffy, died last Monday at the age of fifty-four at the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia, where he had been a patient since October last. He was stricken with hip disease some five years ago and underwent several surgical operations in a vain attempt to recover his health. For more than two years he was an inmate of a Cleveland hospital.

The plans of the Cour d'Alene Fair and Racing Association call for a meeting of horsemen on September 9 to select two stewards to serve with M. D. Wright and I. L. Hildenbrandt, who will be appointed by the association. It is planned to have a ladies' day once each week. W. W. Finn, the superintendent of construction, predicts that the new track will be especially easy on horses with bad feet, as well as those with weak tendons. The track, he says, will be springy and yet not spongy.

SUSPENSION FOR SHILLING

RULING AGAINST CRACK JOCKEY MARKS CLOSING DAY OF WINDSOR RACING.

Pulling Up of Restigouche, Second Choice of Opening Race, Leads to Judicial Action Pending Investigation—Busy Wins Belle Isle Stakes.

Detroit, Mich., July 22.—The closing day of the Windsor Fair Grounds and Driving Park Association's first summer meeting attracted a large crowd to the over-the-river course. It marked a record in point of numbers, and with racing conditions hard to improve upon, a pleasant afternoon of sport was enjoyed by the immense throng present. An evenly balanced card of seven races was offered, with the Belle Isle Selling Stakes, a dash of a mile, as the feature. William Garth furnished the winner of this event in Busy, which lashed to beat Colonel Ashmeade a neck after a long hard stretch drive. Colonel Ashmeade ran a remarkable race. At the first turn he was thrown against the fence and was pulled up, his rider being forced to go to the outside thereafter. Cohort and Royal Meteor, coupled as the S. C. Hildreth entry, was made favorite. Cohort showed speed for about five-eighths, but Royal Meteor was a distant trailer all the way. As a matter of fact, all of the Hildreth horses that raced today were in poor form. Dinna Ken bolted the course in the steeplechase, while Restigouche was seemingly unable to raise a respectable gallop in the six-furlongs dash, the opening race of the program. The Hildreth racers have evidently trained off, as the western turfman sent out two winners to the post during the meeting, Colonel Ashmeade, which won on the opening day and The Welkin, winner of a steeplechase on Monday last.

Action of the judges in the case of jockey C. H. Shilling overshadowed in a measure interest in the racing. When the start for the opening race came, Shilling deliberately pulled out his moult, Restigouche, and was a distant trailer all the way. The judges took exception to this, as the horse was a well backed second choice. Their ruling in the matter was that Shilling be suspended pending action of the stewards of the Canadian Racing Associations at their next meeting, which will probably take place during the Fort Erie meeting. Shilling has been in trouble more or less since his arrival in Canada and a few weeks ago the Canadian Racing Associations made a ruling which confined his riding to the horses of his employer, S. C. Hildreth.

Merman, winner of the seventh race, was the only winner who he bid up during the afternoon. Capt. P. M. Walker was forced to ride his mount, Restigouche, which was $405 over his entered price. The winners of the other three selling races were not advanced, neither was there any claiming during the afternoon.

Besides winning the stake event William Garth also furnished the winner of the sixth race in Rod and Gun, which scored easily by his moult, Restigouche. Ocean Pound upset calculations by beating a band of fast sprinters in the first race. Speculation was divided between Semprolus and Restigouche, report having it that a large commission had been sent away on the Carman colt. Semprolus showed a fine turn of speed, passing Rose Queen rounding the post, and having five pounds in the pocket. Ocean Pound responded with some of her old-time speed when jockey Glass called on her and got up in the closing strides to beat Semprolus a head.

Jockey J. Wilson was unable to fill his engagements this afternoon. He was taken sick this morning and what he wanted he had. News reached here this morning of the death of George W. Torrance, chairman of the executive committee of the Ontario Jockey Club, who died in Montreal yesterday. Mr. Torrance was on his way home from a trip to England. He was the last of the charter members and original directors of the old Ontario Jockey Club and was held in high esteem by American horsemen who have raced at Toronto.

John Hachmeister arrived from Latonia this morning and was a visitor to the course this afternoon. He is here as the guest of George M. Hendrie and will spend a week at the latter's bungalow on the St. Clair estate. Mrs. Cassidy was another visitor. He came down from Mt. Clemens to witness the racing and will also be Mr. Hendrie's guest tomorrow. Mr. Hachmeister will return to Kentucky in a week or ten days to close up the business of the recent meetings at Churchill Downs and Latonia. The fall season in Kentucky will be of about the same length as last year. Mr. Hachmeister reports that many of the big eastern owners have asked for stable room at Louisville and Latonia this fall.

Jockey Dunn's apprentice allowance expired this afternoon. The boy has been riding in good form since his return from Kentucky. Joseph McLennan, assistant racing secretary of the Niagara Racing Association, reports the following horsemen from Latonia as having engaged stable room at Fort Erie: James Fitzsimmons, W. P. Austin, Henderson & Hogan, Barney Schreiber, J. N. Camden, James McManus, Weber & Ward, W. H. Fizer, G. R. Bryson and H. C. Hallenbeck.

PICK OF THE WHITNEY PURCHASE.

Lexington, Ky., July 22.—Trainer James Rowe has requested Major Foxhall A. Daingerfield to send him a list of the ten best colts and ten best fillies of the fifty-seven yearlings recently purchased by Harry Payne Whitney from James R. Keene, explaining that it is intended to enter the colts for the Epsom Derby and the fillies for the Oaks. Major Daingerfield selected the colts by Voter—Running Stream; Voter—Noonday; Delhi—Dominos; Delhi—Pink Domino; Disguise—Biturica; Disguise—Meggs Hill; Peter Pan—Midge; Peter Pan—Half Crown; Disguise—Ambrosine, and Ben Brush—Gingham.

His choice of the fillies included those by Voter—Runaway Girl; Hippodrome—Stepping Stone; Disguise—Seeress; Disguise—Pretty Maiden; Peter Pan—Maid of Erin; Voter—Ecaterina; Voter—Pope Joan; Peter Pan—Ladaine; Peter Pan—Dazzling, and Peter Pan—Pastorella.

BUTTE ATTENDANCE RECORD IS BROKEN.

Butte, Mont., July 22.—The largest attendance ever seen at a race meeting here was present today and witnessed racing of an interesting character. A handicap at one mile and seventy yards was the especial attraction of the afternoon. Meadow, Wade McLemore's good mare, was a mild favorite in the betting but, poorly ridden by Cavanaugh, disappointed her numerous backers. She finished third to Spohn and Arasee. Formful racing was the order of the day, however, four favorites winning. The first runoff of the meeting occurred in the bidding up of Sevenfull to $605 by W. S. Heath. The mare was retained by Goodman & Brennan.

Jockey E. McEwan, a newcomer here, who rode successfully at Victoria and Vancouver, carried off the riding honors of the day by scoring on Spohn and Chilla.

are singularly fortunate in having their strings in a forward condition. Belmont Park is a particularly good place to stable thoroughbreds. It has long been noted as a training ground on which horses thrive. The commodious stabling inclosures are sheltered by tall shade trees like those grown in North and South Carolina. Absolute quiet reigns, which is essential in training high string horses, and it is a well-known fact among turfmen that horses of this temperament run improved races after a sojourn at Belmont Park. The training and main tracks are, perhaps, unequalled in any part of the globe. Unfiring efforts on the part of superintendent Gorman have made them safe, as well as fast. A firm bottom is covered with a light cushion of one and one-half inches. Horses that have gone "dickety" on other tracks train here in a most satisfactory manner.

ONCE PRIDE OF THE BRITISH TURF.

Sceptre's Recent Sale Brings Out Many Interesting Incidents of Her Career.

In recent years two truly great mares, Sceptre and Pretty Polly, became public idols in horse-loving Great Britain because of their remarkable achievements in racing. Of the two Sceptre came first and has been the stud for a number of years. Along with the other's belonging to Sir William Bass she was sold at auction at Newmarket July 10 and was bought by Messrs. Tattersall for 7,000 guineas, or $36,400 in our money. Her daughter Maid of the Mist, with a filly foal by Torpoint, was then sold to A. Portman for $23,500.

Speculation has been rife for some time past as to what price Sceptre would bring at this sale, and the mare and her career have been much discussed in English turf publications, Sporting Life giving the following interesting details the morning prior to the sale:
"Sceptre's first appearance in public was sensational enough in all conscience. She was, of course, bred by the late Duke of Westminster, and after that nobleman's death she was put for sale at Newmarket the morning of Wednesday, July 4, 1900, along with the remainder of the Eton yearlings. There were twelve of them. They realized an aggregate of $225,600, an average of $18,040—truly colossal figures. Sceptre, then known as the filly by Persimmon, out of Ornament, was the eleventh lot offered, and that 1832, 1833, 1834, 1835, 1836, 1837, 1838, 1839, 1840, 1841, 1842, 1843, 1844, 1845, 1846, 1847, 1848, 1849, 1850, 1851, 1852, 1853, 1854, 1855, 1856, 1857, 1858, 1859, 1860, 1861, 1862, 1863, 1864, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880, Winner—Br. f. by Star Shoot—Flying Ship (trained by F. Brooks).
Went to post at 2:43. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. OCEAN BOUND followed the leader closely to the stretch turn, then moved up rapidly and, wearing SEMPROLUS down in the last furlong, outgamed him in the final drive. SEMPROLUS showed great speed in the early running and finished gamely, but tired in the last sixteenth. GRASMERE closed a big gap and was a fast gaining third. RESTIGOUCHE was pulled up after the start.
Scratched—97220 Sidney R., 99.
Overweights—Semprolus, 2 pounds.

97337 SECOND RACE—About 2 1-4 Miles. Steeplechase. Purse $600. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Net value to winner $450; second, $100; third, $50.

Winner—B. g. by Ardington—Vesta (trained by J. Robertson).
Went to post at 3:04. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. MYSTIC LIGHT was under restraint until in the last furlong, where he moved up with a rush and, taking an easy lead, won under a pull. LIZZIE FLAT fenced well and showed much speed, but made a bad landing at the eleventh fence and her rider lost both stirrups. OCTOPUS fell lame and walked home. DINNA KEN bolted the course at the fifth jump.

97338 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. (90072—1:12—8—124.) $500 added. 3-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $425; second, $75; third, $50.

Winner—Br. f. by Ogden—Ivory Bells (trained by J. Powers).
Went to post at 3:22. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. IVAREL left the barrier with a good burst of speed and, taking a long lead while rounding the far turn, won in a center. MUSKMELO dropped in behind the leader at the start and remained there. BARNEY IGOE closed a big gap and finished with a good burst of speed. RYE STRAW showed speed, but quit in the homestretch. SIDNEY R. was outrun all the way. STARE ran poorly.
Scratched—97065 Water Welles, 107.
Overweights—Barney Igoe, 1 pound.

97339 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. (76060—1:38 1/2—5—91 1/2.) Belle Isle Stakes. Value $1,200. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $915; second, $175; third, $75.

Winner—Br. c. by Galore—Busy Mad (trained by W. Garth).
Went to post at 3:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. BUSY, off forwardly, was waited behind the pacemakers until well into the homestretch, then moved up with a rush into the lead, but tired and just lasted long enough to outstay COLONEL ASHMEADE. The latter was pinched off and next to the rail soon after the start, but went around on the outside and, finishing fast, would have won in a few more strides. EDDA ran a good race and finished fast. OAKHURST showed speed, but tired badly. ROYAL METEOR ran poorly and COHORT failed to stay the route. SPELLBOUND was always outpaced.

97340 FIFTH RACE—5-8 Mile. (91537—1:00—2—108.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Net value to winner $310; second, $60; third, $30.

Winner—Br. c. by Indeflexible—Orsina (trained by A. Swing).
Went to post at 4:24. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. SHERLOCK HOLMES began slowly, but worked his way up on the outside and, wearing MAD RIVER down in the last furlong, got up to win in the closing strides. MAD RIVER showed a fine turn of early speed and drew away into a long lead on the backstretch, but was tiring at the end. BURLY closed a gap and finished gamely. OCHE COURT could never get up. SEVEN STARS ran well to the stretch.
Scratched—96207 Dragnet, 105.
Overweights—Burly, 1 pound; Ganadore, 21; Seven Stars, 31.

97341 SIXTH RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. (75778—54 1/2—2—101.) $400 added. 2-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $365; second, $60; third, $30.

Winner—Br. f. by Planudes—Gumrod (trained by William Garth).
Went to post at 4:47. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second and third driving. ROD AND GUN was taken back and saved early, then moved up with a rush after entering the homestretch and drew away easily in the last furlong. WOOD PONY was a forward contender from the start and outstayed COMMONER'S TOUCH in the final drive. COMMONER'S TOUCH closed a gap and finished fast. TERRIBLE BOY showed speed, but quit in the stretch drive. THE RUMP closed a big gap. CALIFORNIA QUEEN set the early pace, but quit badly.
Scratched—97019 Island Queen, 104; 95821 Miss Wiggs, 104.

Winner—Ch. g. by Fatherless—Mermaid (trained by F. Schelke).
Went to post at 5:12. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. MERMAN dashed to the front at the start and, setting a fast pace, won all the way, but had to be shaken up at the end to outstay THE GOLDEN BUTTERFLY. The latter ran well up all the way and was gaining on the winner at the finish. NAUGHTY LAD ran well and held the others safe. FULFILL and ROMP showed speed. The winner, entered for $400, was bid up to $805 and bought in.
Scratched—97253 Baythorn, 100; (97320) Arcite, 105.

MR. BELMONT'S HORSES IN ENGLAND.

Merry Task's Good Race in the London Cup—Two of His Rock Sand Colts Promise Well.

London, Eng., July 10.—It fell to the lot of August Belmont to score his first considerable success of the present racing season when his staying colt, Merry Task, won the London Cup at the recent Alexander Park meeting. Merry Task was the top-weight of the race with 126 pounds to carry, but this was offset by the fact that he was ridden by Danny Maher and, under his masterly guidance, had little trouble in winning by two lengths from G. Edwards' mare Anchora, 118 pounds, with R. Mills' Ayshire—Chely colt third. There were ten starters, of which Protestant Boy, 117 pounds, was favorite at 5 to 2. It was 11 to 2 against Merry Task. The net value of the race was $4,395. Mr. Belmont's two-year-old filly Togery has won two races in smart style, but neither was of any value. Togery's three-year-old sister, Sandwich, has been badly beaten in all of her starts this year, but is reported to be on the improving list and may presently do something worthy of her excellent reputation last year. It may be mentioned that in Black Rock and Monotone Mr. Belmont owns two Rock Sand colts of high private reputation and Black Rock is expected to make his appearance in the public before long, with every prospect of improving the fortunes of the stable. He is a shapely black colt by Rock Sand—Black Poplar, Monotone being a big bay out of Lady Margaret.

H. P. Whitney's luck has been of the worst so far this year, but the present hot weather seems congenial to his horses and of late they seem to be thriving and improving. Particularly is this true of his Middle Park Plate winner, Borrow, which was for a long time thin and lacking in muscle and strength because of sickness last winter. Recently he has been filling out and building up perceptibly and in his work moves with a measure of dash and freedom betokening winning races in the fall campaign. Of the other horses in the stable Whisk Brown is the only one so far able to be of much service and this fact is quite distinctly in robust health and at his best, but the two-year-olds have all proved disappointments.

Richard Waugh, the well-known trainer, will be leaving Germany next December for Totis, where, says Deutscher Sport, he will take up an engagement as private trainer to Count Arthur Henckel. For a quarter of a century Waugh stood in the forefront of his profession as trainer to the Royal Grati-Stud, and for the last few years has been highly successful as a public trainer. By his engagement with Count Arthur Henckel Waugh is reviving old traditions, for his father, the late James Waugh, of Newmarket, trained for the count's father, Count Hugo Henckel, with conspicuous success in the 'seventies.

Clonbern, the half-brother to Orby, the Derby winner, ran a most ungenerous race in the Lingfield Park Stakes this week. From the start he sundered, and settling down last finished in that ignominious position, so there was seemingly reason for running him in a hood.

Forfeit has been declared for W. K. Vanderbilt's Slightly in the Ostend Grand Critérium, her owner having decided to run the filly at Sandown Park in the National Breeders' Produce Stakes, where she will be the mount of O'Neill.

At the Biber Club meeting a bet of 300 to 200 on was accepted about Sunstar and King William coupled for the St. Leger.

It is reported that Airman, a three-year-old gelding by Ayshire—Lady Alwyne, the property of his majesty, has been sold to W. Mumford, and that the horse will be sent to India.

Lord Derby is now a good second to J. B. Joel in the list of winning owners and if Swynford wins the Eclipse Stakes at Sandown Park this week, will press him close for the leadership. If he does not quite gain it. This is a situation hardly thought of a month ago and is due to the excellent racing of Swynford and Stedfast. To date the owners who have won $10,000 or more are:

Owner.	Win's.	Races.	Amount.
J. B. Joel	6	10	$98,025
Lord Derby	5	8	58,115
C. E. Howard	3	5	41,035

Swynford's defeat of Lemberg in the Princess of Wales Stakes at the Newmarket First July meeting had the effect of elevating him to third place in the list of winning horses of this year. In case that he wins the Eclipse Stakes he will by the end of this week probably be in first place. Last year the Eclipse netted Lemberg's owner $43,850. A similar sum added to what Swynford has already won would give him a total in excess of that now to the credit of Sunstar and dispose the latter from his present supremacy. At present the sums to the credit of the horses which have won $10,000 or more are:

Horse and pedigree.	Races.	Amount.
Sunstar, br. c, 3, by Sundridge—Doris.	3	$71,400

Horse and pedigree.	Win.	Races.	Won.
Willonx, br. c, 4, by William the Third—Tribonyx	3	3	$36,375
Swynford, br. c, 4, by John o' Gaunt—Cantbury Pilgrim	3	3	30,395
Cherimofa, b. f, 3, by Cherry Tree—Svelte	1	1	24,750
Atmah, b. f, 3, by Galeazzo—Mrs. Kendal	1	1	23,000
Stedfast, ch. c, 3, by Chaucer—Be Sure Hornet's Beauty, b. g, 3, by Tredennis—Hornet	2	17,125
Bannockburn, b. c, 3, by Forfarshire—Rouge	9	15,040
Knockfeerna, br. f, 3, by Desmond—Adula	5	14,325
Sunder, ch. c, 4, by Sundridge—Di-vorce Court	1	13,750
Bachelor's Double, ch. h, 5, by Tredennis—Lady Bawn	4	13,250
Marajah, b. c, 4, by Ajax—Mary Sea-son	1	13,250
Lady Americus, b. f, 2, by Americus—Palotta	2	12,850
Mushroom, b. or br. c, 3, by Common Quick	2	12,837
Brown colt, 2, by Sundridge—Doris	3	12,750
Freebooter, br. c, 3, by Farman—Ex-cellenza	2	11,950
Prince San, b. c, 3, by Santol—Regime	2	11,825
Moscatto, ch. h, 5, by Marco—Collaret	1	11,770
	1	10,000

Notwithstanding last week's large number of races—about seventy—today's table of the principal winning stallions has not been subjected to a great deal of alteration. The most conspicuous advance was effected by Farman, and, curiously enough, the latter's sire re-appears in the list following an absence of over a month. Farman's most recent winners are Miss Elsie, Freebooter and Nesta. Sundridge has not moved since last Monday, but still he is a long way ahead of the field, but the prolific Desmond is drawing nearer to William the Third. The other positions remain pretty much as before, and are as follows:

Sire, Foaled, Pedigree.	Win's.	Won.
Sundridge (1898), by Amphion—Sierra, by Springfield	6	$108,560
William the Third (1898), by St. Simon—Gravity, by Wisdom	7	52,830
Desmond (1896), by St. Simon—L'Ab-besse de Jouarre, by Trappist	16	48,262
Tredennis (1898), by Kendal—St. Marguerite, by Hermit	8	37,570
Cherry Tree (1891), by Hampton—Cherry, by Sterling	6	34,282
St. Frusquin (1893), by St. Simon—Isabel, by Plebeian II.	12	34,043
John o' Gaunt (1891), by Isinglass—La Fleche, by St. Simon	4	33,950
Cyclone (1900), by St. Simon—Arca-dia, by Isonomy	12	32,485
Farman (1900), by Gallinule—Belli-zona, by Necromancer	9	28,905
Galeazzo (1893), by Galopin—Eira, by Kilsber	3	26,185
Forfarshire (1897), by Royal Hampton—St. Elizabeth, by St. Simon	7	24,685
Persimmon (1893), dead, by St. Simon—Perdita II., by Hampton	11	24,416
Santol (1897), by Queen's Birthday—Merry Wife, by Merry Hampton	8	19,460
Marco (1892), by Barcaldine—Noviti-ate, by Hermit	8	18,330
Chaucer (1900), by St. Simon—Can-terbury Pilgrim, by Tristram	3	18,305
Americus (1892), by Emperor of Nor-folk—Clara D., by Glenelg	5	18,277
Gallinule (1884), by Isonomy—Moor-hen, by Hermit	11	16,222
Symington (1893), by Ayshire—Siphonia, by St. Simon	8	15,572

No change of moment has taken place in the positions of the jockeys and the riding record is now:

Jockey.	Mts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	P.C.
Maher, D.	252	59	40	32	121	23.41
